HOW DOES CBD WORK?

We all have an endocannabinoid system that regulates three of the body's vital functions:

- Central Nervous System
- Hormone Regulation
- Immunity

CB1 and CB2 receptors are found throughout our body and respond to the phytocannabinoids in the plant, regulating our system. The impact is so powerful it targets your genes in order to understand what your body needs.

Through scientific clinical studies we can prove that cannabinoids have profound effects on symptoms such as: diabetes, anti inflammation, epilepsy, fertility, and some types of cancer. This is due to the plant's ability to synthesise with our body and bring it back to homeostasis. What's even more fascinating is combining cannabinoid treatments with activities such as yoga, breathing, diet and meditation, in order to see faster progress.

Knowing your endocannabinoid system deficiencies is key to discovering the root of your persisting symptoms or illnesses. As our bodies are continuously changing, we are excited to announce our DNA testing kit which we believe will be vital in the future of cannabis medicine.

JUST A FEW FACTS

WORKS NATURALLY WITH YOUR BODY

NON-PSYCHO ACTIVE

1 OF 152
CANNABINOIDS

NUMEROUS
HEALTH BENEFITS

CBD is a natural, plant-based cannabinoid derived from hemp that works by regulating our body's endocannabinoid system (ECS). This biological system is responsible for our stress levels, memory, anxiety, mood, and sleep patterns, among other essential processes that maintain our internal balance.

Introducing CBD into your daily routine has the potential to improve sleep, mood, and focus while reducing stress, pain, anxiety, and inflammation.

OUR Products

We have personally tried every product - and so have our friends and family! Everything we offer is not only effective, but serves a purpose in our daily wellness routines, enhancing our senses, and nourishing our minds and bodies.

1 BREEDING

Our hemp grows beautifully in the Mediterranean climate, soaking up the glorious Sun and using a local river to supply our crops with fresh sustainable water. Our organic soil has all the rich and valuable minerals that are essential in producing the best quality oil.

2 QUALITY EXTRACTION

The Leaf Elite ensures that all of our producers have up-to-date certifications in order to extract high quality product which complies with all European regulations.

3 3RD PARTY TESTED

Our production is monitored from seed to bottle to ensure its purity and potency as well as its luxuriously unique consistency.

TLE is a Member of the British Hemp Association.

ELITE COLLECTION

After much searching, we found locally grown and produced CBD that passed all of our tests and exceeded our expectations. With this, we are finally able to offer our clients the most unique and personal CBD experience. All our products at TLE, are formulated with the utmost precision and care to ensure we don't lose any benefits of the plant. Our locally organic hemp plants are grown to the highest-quality standards, and have been selected for their cannabinoid content and consistently low THC content of 0.2% or less.

TLE IS PROUD TO PRESENT OUR DNA TESTING KIT!

We bring our customers the knowledge of their own endocannabinoid system, based on their personal genetic information.

WHAT DO WE DO WITH THAT INFO?

The analysis of the various genetic markers is divided into three major areas, Phytocannabinoids metabolism, the impact of phytocannabinoids on your well-being and your predisposition for chronic use of phytocannabinoids

By using this latest scientific technology, you can help elevate your clients personalised wellness experience and improve the effectiveness of their therapeutic treatments.
